- Please complete and return this form as soon as possible to the Parish Priest
- It is an ancient Christian tradition that children are placed under the care of a patron saint
- The parents are responsible in the sight of God for the religious upbringing of their child. In the celebration of Baptism, you will be asked to declare your readiness to accept this responsibility.
- There must be at least one Godparent who is a practising Catholic. It's preferable that there should be two. Godparents accept the responsibility of assisting the parents in bringing a child up in the faith.
- It is customary to make a donation to the Church on the occasion of Baptism, often £50.
